

Chili Cook-Off Championship

Team Building Dinner Event

The Chili Cook-Off Championship is a great teambuilding activity that is fun, quick-paced, challenging and thought-provoking. The groups enjoy a sense of unity, camaraderie and fun while creating their meal. Each Cook-Off includes custom debrief topics that are relevant to your business environment. The program can also be designed to reinforce other company initiatives or themes.

The large group forms into smaller teams. Each team is provided with cash to purchase ingredients from the culinary store (or to trade or buy from others). Teams then plan, create, and prepare their own World Famous Chili. Along the way, teams create a team name, slogan for their chili and a marketing presentation to help them "sell" their position as having the World's Best Chili.

The cooking experience is supervised by an Executive Chef, and the teambuilding process is overseen by a professional facilitator. The Cook-Off includes team cooking stations, cooking pots and utensils, aprons, hats, and all the ingredients needed to make chili.

After cooking, each team's chili will be evaluated, based on a set of criteria by the chef and facilitator. Then the eating begins!
